Jimmy Matern's Long Overdue On Flight To Chita

Fifteen Hours Have Passed Since Birdman Passed Over Novosibirsk—Should Have Reached Destination Unless He Encountered Difficulties With Plane

MOSCOW, June 7.—Fifteen hours after he had passed Novosibirsk, Jimmy Matern, round-the-world flier, was unreported so far as Moscow knew, but unless he had encountered difficulties with his plane, he should have reached Chita, Siberia, the next stop on his schedule.

THE MATERN TIME-TABLE
(Time is Eastern Standard)

Arrived	New York	Left
4:15 a.m. Sun.	Mon.	4:21 a.m. Sat.
10:00 a.m. Sun.	Mon.	9:00 p.m. Sat.
7:57 a.m. Mon.	Moscow	5:14 p.m. Mon.
5:35 a.m. Tues.	Omak	5:10 p.m. Tues.

NOVOSIBIRSK, Siberia, June 7.—Jimmy Matern was sighted here at 6:10 a.m. today, Moscow Time (8:10 p.m. E.S.T., Tuesday). He was flying high and toward Chita, Siberia. His destination is the fifth leg of his round-the-world flight.

He was about 100 miles west of Omak, Siberia, from where he hoped off at 1:10 a.m. Moscow Time, 5:10 p.m. E.S.T. Tuesday. His average speed was close to 120 miles an hour.

Chita is about 1,100 miles from Novosibirsk.

Matern, a little below the globe-circling record he set on his last, round cruise across Siberia, was unreported here. He was just three days, 12 hours and 40 minutes out of New York.

RAILWAY LINES ACQUIRED FOR MILLION CASH

Total Sum Van Sweringen Paid in Building up Vast Domain

WASHINGTON, June 7.—One million dollars was all the cash that O. P. Van Sweringen, his brother and associates originally put into acquiring railroad interests which now have expanded to one of the most vast in the country.

This fact was developed by testimony in the Senate investigation of the Van Sweringens rail domain.

Van Sweringen was asked the amount yesterday by counsel for the Senate Committee, and said: "I read over your question and am pleased to say I can answer frankly," he said at the start of this morning's examination.

"The amount of dollars was $1,000,000 which my brother and my associates started back in 1918."

J. P. Morgan and his counsel, John W. Davis, listened intently, as did another crowd that jammed the hot hearing room.

PREDICT APPROVAL

A moment before the investigation on terms of resolution to be presented to the Senate on the subject of the Federal Reserve Bank of New York, the matter of fact answer by Van Sweringen as to the amount of money he had been given since he first took the stand.

"Are you satisfied with the committee's report?" Pecora was asked.

"Yes, sir," he replied.

Catholic Cleric Dies In Calgary

CALGARY, June 7.—Father William C. Cawson, prominent Roman Catholic cleric of Calgary, died here today following a long illness.

He was principal of St. Mary's school for boys since 1916. Born in Grand River, British Columbia, December 3, 1878. Father Cawson was educated in Charlottetown, winning the first Rhodes Scholarship for Prince Edward Island in 1900.

Mollison's Ready For Flight

Mr. and Mrs. James Mollison are ready and waiting for good weather before setting out on their long trip by the air route to America. From there, they will hop off for Bagdad, then back home again. Below is shown their plane, which has been called "the flying gasoline tank." Its real title is the "Seafarer," but it is mostly a winged gas tank.

45 Children Are Trapped As Wind Wrecks Schools

Fireman Killed Fighting Blaze in Toronto—Young Boy Killed by Lightning—Scores of Injuries Reported in One of Worst Electrical Disturbances in Years

TORONTO, June 7.—Death and injury and widespread property damage rode into Ontario today on the back of a storm of hurricane proportions and severe electrical disturbances.

Forty-five school children were trapped in two small schools at Wiggins when the structure was damaged but so far as could be learned through stricken channels of communication none of them were killed. One child was seriously injured when the public school at Wiggins crashed through the roof of the Belle school near Milton collapsed on 25 pupils.

STORM RIDES ON INTO NEW YORK

Hydro electric services and telephone and telegraph communication were interrupted in many places by fallen trees which uprooted telegraph poles and cut power lines.

Five students were injured at the Guilford college when wind and hail broke windows and glass was showered into the room. Three students were blown away and one student was killed.

In Ottawa directed an earlier storm, which was driven west on 100,000 ft. high waves broke through the roof of the building and caused much damage.

London, Bradford, Kitchener and other points in western Ontario also reported a terrific storm.

CHILDREN TRAPPED AS SCHOOL TOPPLES

MILWAUKEE, June 7.—Caught in an avalanche of tumbling bricks and rafters, a school today fell and 45 children were trapped when the roof and rear wall of Belle school was shattered by a terrific wind and thunderstorm. Extent of the damage was not estimated.

The school, three miles from the town, stood in the path of the storm which uprooted telegraph poles and cut power lines.

MOLLISON'S HALT NEW YORK HOP

LONDON, June 7.—James A. Mollison and his wife, Amy Mollison, who had hoped to leave London today for a flight to New York, again postponed their attempt last night.

The Mollisons are planning a triple record breaker by flying non-stop to New York, thence back across the Atlantic to some point in the middle east, and then again to England.

Was Forced Beyond 15-Mile Radius of City For Supplies

C. E. Christensen Testifies
Wednesday at Milk
Price Probe

Inability of the Northern Alberta Dairy Pool to obtain summer supplies of milk forced it to go beyond a 15-mile radius of the city of Edmonton to obtain supplies, declared C. E. Christensen, manager of the Pool in a statement made at the inquiry before the Board of Public Utilities Commissioners now in progress at the court house, into the entire milk situation in this province.

A. Carpenter, chairman of the Board and Commissioner E. J. Freeman are hearing the representation.

Mr. Christensen's statement was made after J. B. Ritchie, secretary-treasurer of the Alberta Milk Producers' Association had stated that in 1920 the producer had failed to get their seasonal increase but caused the Pool to sign the contract to supply one-half of the milk in this city with milk.

PRODUCERS HELP DOWN

When Mr. Ritchie's statement was made, Mr. Christensen said and asked if the real reason was because they did not get their increase was because the producers had been held down.

"That was our information," replied Mr. Ritchie. "We were informed that the Pool paid its members for milk and that they were unable to supply the institution at a reasonable price and got the contract."

C. F. Newell, K.C., for the Woodland Dairy, asked Mr. Ritchie if the Pool starting up had been the means of creating a large milk surplus and if difficulties had been increased by reason of the Pool bringing in milk from more than 15 miles of this city.

At this point, Mr. Christensen, manager of the Pool, rose and said that the Pool, willingly or unwillingly, had been forced to go beyond the 15-mile radius of the city of Edmonton to obtain milk, as the producer would not sell to them having arrangements with other dairies.

J. J. Fawcett of the attorney-general's department put in some figures in this document. It was shown that in 1920 the price to the producer was 7.8 cents and the price to the consumer 12.50 a producer of 3.62 cents.

In 1921 the producer was being paid 3.48 cents and the retailer 8.41 cents a spread of 4.93 cents difference in spread of only one cent.

DAMNED ON COSTS

Mr. Ritchie was on the witness stand throughout the morning. He was mainly examining the costs of production.

He testified that a questionnaire had been sent out to producers of milk, on which information was given in a statement read on Tuesday by H. M. Bailey.

The 1921 report of the dairy industry, a producer's family, enables him to go through. Lowered labor costs have been brought about by the fact of the farmer's milk production.

In all 200 questionnaires were sent out and returns were received varying in information on 137 dairies.

Of 354 cows dealt with in the returns, it was shown that they yielded 5,121,000 pounds or an average of 700 pounds per cow.

The total feed cost was $24,311 or an average of $59 per cow.

Pasture costs were $2,853 or an average of $511 per cow.

FEED PRICES UP

Feeds were up about 35 per cent this year, he said, although alfalfa was the one exception of feeding that had remained the same in price, probably because there had been a surplus in the feed.

It has been determined that the minimum cost of production was $132 per 100 pounds of milk. Higher prices were paid for milk, but the cost was not met.

The "boulder" cow constituted a problem. This was the type that fell below the minimum production of 700 pounds a year was not sufficiently productive but probably would "boulder" later. Thus it was kept on as a "boulder."

His association had no connection with the Dairy Pool. It had worked under contract with the Edmonton City Dairy and Woodland Dairy, but not since September 3, 1921.

Dealing with costs, Mr. Ritchie said that it cost between $2.50 and $3.00 to build a proper barn in this country—barns that were built in health and other regulations. He also estimated that each dairy required equipment costing about $1,000.

Prior to the end of 1920 an "ideal" situation had prevailed in this city.

Mayor expects salary payments—Comments on Calgary Statement

Commenting on the statement made Monday night at Calgary by Mayor A. Davidson to the effect that Calgary would probably be unable to pay salaries to its servants by member or sooner, Mayor D. K. Scott said Wednesday that Edmonton had instituted the bond scheme for the purpose of guarding against a crisis of this kind occurring here.

He explained that 1922 tax collections had been 817 per cent collected at a rate of 100 per cent. Calgary was not under a similar arrangement. He said that the city was asking its employees to accept payment of salaries in city of Edmonton bonds. We expected we were in a position to meet salary payments in the same manner.

Despite inclement weather which has slowed up the canvass in many districts, and the great basketball games which have also had their effect, the canvassers finding many property owners away from home when they make their evening calls, the Edmonton Employment Service Plan is still going ahead, and has a strong mark.

Commercial Grads Face Elimination In Third Game of Durant Series

FORCED TO PLAY GAME TONIGHT OR LOSE ROUND

Commercial Grads must win tonight or else. . . And there's a word of meaning in that word "else" . . . It means their series with the Oklahoma Cardinals is all over. . . That they will have lost out in three straight games. . . That Durant and his Redmond team will be representing this continent at basketball in the next Women's Olympics. . . Quer how much meaning there can be in one little word. . .

However, it's a lot more cheerful to think in winning terms and anything about the possibility of a loss. . . The Grads have always been noted for their great spirit. . . It has been a tradition that has come down through the team's history. . . That's a history as glamorous as any in the sports world. . . Now, when they're "on the spot," that spirit, or a will to win, should stand them in good stead. . .

Fans from near and far have been tending their encouragement to Coach Page's team. . . Representing the hope that they will overcome the two-game deficit and go on to win. . .

There's a tall order against a club as good as these Oklahoma Cardinals. . . But there never was a Grads team that wasn't always in a tight spot. . . And they won't stop now. . .

There's an old axiom that a change is as good as a rest. . . That goes for athletes, as well as everyone else. . . Today I give you a ball player as an example. . . Breaking into last night's Senior League game as shortstop for the Royals, Russ Dolan, former club second sacker, whacked three great singles in as many times at bat and filled his position in perfect fashion. . . Russ can produce some fine ball when he's right and certainly he got away to a beautiful start with his new club. . .

Young Duke Baer, who pitched South side to their shutout win over Royals last night, was turning in his second victory in as many games for the Loyal squad. . . Baer looks like a consistent winner this season. . . He has shown everything a buster needs in the two starts he has made, although it has struck me that, at times, he makes his pitcher's life too good. . . And that's mighty encouraging. . .

Scotty Lee, the way seems to be the bar-keep moundman of the senior circuit. . . Scotty has yet to win a start, despite the fact that he has done some really sensational work. . . Last night, in getting in allowed only three widely-spaced singles in four innings after setting off to a webby start in his first ball which brought about his downfall. . . He'll win later on, though. . . A man just can't miss when he has Lee's ability. . .

Two Junior Teams To Hold Practise

At the South Side Athletic grounds, Young Liberals will hold a practice starting at 8:30 p.m. All members of the team are asked to turn out. . .

Jack Bartley's Sawdoy boys are asked to report for practice at Victoria High School grounds at 6:30 p.m. Wednesday night. . .

Junior Net Final Is Slated Today

The final of the men's junior net final tournament scheduled to take place between Leo Lemmick, Alberta, versus Leo and Jack Vaughan, Garneau, and the Gladiators at 10 a.m. Tuesday, was postponed on account of rain. It will be played at the same hour today. . .

FAN INTEREST IN BIG FIGHT IS TURBULENT

Old Days on Metropolis Recalled as Battle Nears Zero Hour
By EDWARD J. NEIL
Associated Press Staff Writer
NEW YORK, June 7.—Lacking the turbulent last-minute arguments of the old days, but with interest and feeling running almost as high as it did when Tex Rickard was at the helm, Jack Dempsey's battle with Gene Tunney is being called a "classic" by the boxing world. . .

Max Baer, the 20-year-old fighter from California, called his training clothes and packed his suitcase for his trip to Atlantic City, his conditioning work completed. . . Jack Dempsey, who has been in the ring for over 20 years, is expected to pull out Wednesday for New York and the 15-round engagement with Max Schmeling in the Yankee Stadium Thursday night. . .

ARRANGE PLAN OF INTER-CLUB TOURNAMENTS

He's Ranked Top In City's Tennis List

Harry Kinloch, Mrs. Johnson at Top of Respective Ranking Lists
 A tourney of a ranking list in both men's and women's divisions of play for the first time in the city and the completion of arrangements for intermediate inter-club tournaments for the current season, featured a meeting of the inter-club committee of the Edmonton and District Tennis Association held on Tuesday evening.

The ranking list had been decided on at the annual meeting of the association held last month. Play in the intermediate inter-club division will start on Tuesday night, June 13, with no fewer than 10 clubs taking part.

This year the playdowns will take the form of a league competition instead of the knock-out system used in previous years. By this arrangement each club will play each other club once.

There will be the following nine events in each match:

- First and second men's singles.
- First and second men's doubles.
- First and second ladies' singles.
- Ladies' doubles.
- Mixed doubles.
- Men's junior.
- Men's junior.
- Men's junior.
- Men's junior.

One point will be awarded to the club winning at least five events out of the nine. At the end of the schedule a playdown will be arranged between the two leading clubs, the winner of which will be awarded the new cup presented by the Edmonton and District Tennis Association. To the runner-up will go the shield awarded in previous years to the winner of the competition.

The competition is open to any member of an intermediate club whose name does not appear on the following city ranking list.

MEN.
 1. H. Kinloch; 2. J. Oliver; 3. C. W. Brown; 4. F. Goddard; 5. J. Carter; 6. F. M. McNeill; 7. G. Gundersen; 8. S. Mohr; 9. W. McIntosh; 10. A. R. Smith; 11. H. McIntosh; 12. C. Campbell; 13. F. Casselman; 14. A. Hyatt; 15. J. Bellamy; 16. A. Nash; 17. J. Brissette.

Yankees Win Double Card From Lowly Boston Men as Ruth Hits Home Run for Leadership.
NEW YORK, June 7.—The Yankees wound up their home stand Tuesday by taking two games from Boston first 8-4 and 8-4. The double victory gave them eight in a row and night straight over Boston.

Babe Ruth's 11th home run of the season, giving him the lead in home runs, was the big blow of the second game.
